Summary:

On 01-24-2007, at approximately 5:02 p.m., the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Valley Dispatch Center received a "9-1-1" emergency call. The caller said someone shot his girlfriend, Rhonda Santellanez. Deputies from the Highland Sheriff's Station responded and made contact with the caller at his residence. The caller directed deputies to a bedroom where Santellanez was lying on her bed. Santellanez suffered a gunshot wound. Santellanez was transported to Loma Linda University Medical Center where medical staff pronounced her dead at approximately 5:46 p.m. Detectives from the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Homicide detail were assigned to investigate the homicide.

It was determined that Gonzales was at the residence and shot Santellanez for an unknown reason. While fleeing the residence Gonzales threatened to kill the caller if he notified police. Gonzales and two other males fled the scene in two separate vehicles. Gonzales fled the scene in a blue Saturn sedan, unknown plate. Gonzales was positively identified as the shooter. Gonzales was identified as a Northside Redlands gang member.

The San Bernardino County District Attorney's Office reviewed the investigation and filed PC 187- Murder charges and issued a $1,000,000 warrant for the arrest of Gonzales.
